2016 NOTICE OF RACE

BVI Spring Regatta and Sailing Festival
Nanny Cay, Tortola, British Virgin Islands
Monday - Sunday (March 28 – April 3, 2016)

Official Notice and Conditions of Race

The Organizing Authority is the BVI Spring Regatta & Sailing Festival Committee.

You are invited to enter the 2016 BVI Spring Regatta and Sailing Festival, the Caribbean regatta with the most racing. This will be the 45th Anniversary of the regatta. Many special events are being planned for all the sailors from around the world to come and enjoy superior and innovative racing in the spectacular setting of Sir Francis Drake Channel and Caribbean Sea. Our Warm Water ~ Hot Racing and Cool Parties in 2016 are not to be missed.

1. RULES

1.1 The BVI Spring Regatta and Sailing Festival will be governed by the following:

- ISAF Racing Rules of Sailing 2013 - 2016;
- CSA Rating Rule 2016;
- Multihull Rating Advisory Committee;
- The class rules for those classes sailing as one-designs
- Sailing Instructions of the BVI Spring Regatta and Sailing Festival for and on behalf of the Royal BVI Yacht Club as the National Authority.

1.2 An International Jury may be convened in accordance with RRS 70, denying the right to appeal, and which may have discretion over penalties other than for infringements of RRS Part 2.

1.3 Boats may be required to display advertising chosen and supplied by the Organizing Authority.

1.4 RRS are altered in the sailing instructions as follows:

RRS 52 will not apply.

RRS 44.2 is changed in that only one turn is required.

RRS 29.1 is changed. Recalls may be notified by radio.

RRS 33 (a) and (b) are changed. New course information will be made by radio.

2. CLASSIFICATION

2.1 Assignment of yachts to a particular class rests entirely with the Regatta Committee, whose decision will be final.

2.2 The Regatta Committee reserves the right to create additional classes if needed.

2.3 Sailing within the different Divisions will be the following classes:

Division A

CSA Spinnaker Classes A - E, which includes Racer/Cruiser. These classes will be racing a combination of windward / leeward and round island courses. With up to five races a day

Division B

CSA Performance Spinnaker, Jib and Main, Bareboat, Classic, Multihull classes sailing round island courses with up to three races a day.

Multihull: Spinnaker and Non-Spinnaker using ratings determined by the Multihull Rating Advisory Committee

Performance Cruiser: For those yachts that wish to race with or without spinnakers but use racing type sails and a spinnaker pole or some form of bearing out spar. Their Rating Certificate must show that they are rated with the equipment they choose to use. Any discrepancies found between what the boat is rated for and what is carried during the event could result in a penalty.

Jib and Main: For cruising yachts in cruising mode, who wish to race with cruising type sails, only one jib at a time, except during sail changes, and one mainsail. A yacht with more than one mast may carry a mizzen or foresail. A staysail may be used in conjunction with a headsail on cutter-rigged boats if the largest headsail is less than 120%. Downwind type sails are not allowed, which include light headsails designed to be poled out downwind. Stripping out and lightening is not allowed.

Bareboat: Yachts in this class must be owned or managed by a known bareboat operator acceptable to the Regatta Committee. Yachts shall conform to all restrictions for the Jib & Main Class except as follows:

- a) Bow numbers will be supplied.
- b) Spinnaker poles or other forms of bearing out spars are not allowed.
- c) Yachts must carry all the equipment normally carried on a bareboat charter in its normal position except for the dinghy and its motor, oars and fuel tank. Biminis and sail covers may be removed and stowed below, but must remain on board, along with the frame. Any boats found to be stripped or lightened shall be subject to a penalty. Yachts must comply with all safety requirements including that no part of an anchor shall overhang the bow while racing.

One Design Classes will sail in a separate area with courses determined in agreement with the class representative.

3. ENTRIES AND REGISTRATION

3.1 Entries are limited to yachts with valid Caribbean Sailing Association (CSA) Rating Certificates, except for Multihulls and One Design Classes and Boards.
